

Shooting is a serious activity and seriously good fun, all in the same day!

The ground is ideal for beginners, experienced and game shots, with a range of targets, including a number of driven stands, ranging from the grouse butts to the high tower with many of the traps set in the woods.

1. Introduction to shooting

If you just want to try shooting as an experience

25 clays/cartridges: £50;

50 clays/cartridges: £70;

75 clays/cartridges: £90

All safety and technical equipment provided (Minimum of 2 guests)

2. Individual lessons

Individual lessons at Folly Farm:

Individual:	1 hour	50 c/c	£100
Shared lesson (2 ppl)	1 hour	100 c/c	£170

Additional Clays/Cartridges per 25: £20

3 Alternative Ground: Please contact Sarah if you wish to organise lessons at an alternative ground.

4 On the peg – help on the peg, particularly for your first day out, is strongly recommended. Day rate applies by arrangement

5 Team Building, Corporate Events, Stag and Hen parties or just a group of friends

These are constructed to the individual event, examples:

- Coffee on arrival, shooting instruction followed by a competition.
- Half day, including coffee and bacon rolls on arrival, practice targets instruction followed by competition, lunch (or not) with results and prize giving
- Full day, including coffee and bacon rolls on arrival, shooting instruction on practice targets, lunch, competition, tea with results and prize giving

Number of targets and time span to be arranged according to numbers/budget.

For more information and bookings please contact:

Sarah Daly:

E: sarahdaly@shootcoach.co.uk T: 07967 328 945